

JOSHUA FROST PHOTOGRAPHY

ABOUT ME

I'm Joshua Frost. I like pie, American soccer, English football, good movies, great food, and I consume enough Diet Pepsi annually to sink the Titanic.

I'm a multi-talented Renaissance man who once professionally designed games

(seriously, Google "Yetisburg"), bought and sold advertising space for magazines, traveled the world, and chased Madonna in London's East End just to get a picture of her jumping into her car with Guy Ritchie (true story).

I never thought I'd be a wedding photographer—turns out, when you discover what you love the most, you can't imagine loving anything else. Ever. Getting married is pretty much the same thing: when you find the person you love the most, nothing will stop you from staying with that person for the rest of your life. I married my lovely wife in 2004, we had our daughter in 2005, and this year marks the beginning of my relationship with you.

I'm a Seattle, WA based photographer, though as an experienced world traveler, I will photograph your wedding in any time zone—if Richard Branson can figure out how to make money off it, I'll even photograph your wedding in space. When you choose to add me to your wedding equation you get nothing but plusses: +energy, +humor, +style, +crazy, and (I hope) +friend. I don't just want to take your picture—I want to get to know you, understand you, and tell your story.

Let's tell your story together.

Boudoir Session — $500+

A boudoir session is photographed in private at a posh hotel (brides only). It includes up to 3 hours of photography using both natural and studio lighting and a 10-page, handcrafted leather album of your favorite images.

DVDs — $300

A digital slide show of memorable moments from your wedding displayed with your favorite songs; max 100 images.

Trash the Dress — $300

A trash the dress session is photographed in the days following the wedding. The opposite of the fine wedding-day portraits, a trash the dress session is an opportunity for you to cut loose and be photographed in your tux and dress in dirty, grungy, and interesting locations. Makes a fantastic contrast to your wedding portraits in your album.
